

COLORADO AND KANSAS.

My sister and I have just arrived in this State and after a two months' tour through Colorado and Kansas, dear old Kentucky seems a veritable meadow-land between the two.

We reached the mountainous country around Cripple Creek, Col., the second week in August and encamped on some "heaven-kissing" hill with cooling breezes from old Pike's Peak and others of his clan wreathing themselves around, one could not but think that the reports of such hot times in old Kentucky were mere hallucinations of an excited imagination, did not remembrance of former experience rise to prove their truth.

A very great mining camp is Cripple Creek. Nine years ago wild animals held sway where now a respectable city of 5,000 inhabitants stands, and this district of 50,000, so devastated by fire three years past, and again one year ago, has now a pay roll of $1,000,000 a month. Scores of miners lift their shaft houses from every hill and hundreds of men work there day and night. Everyone is interested either directly or indirectly in mining, though many a hoping, eager fellow has found out that "all is not gold that glitters."

Colorado scenery has been raved about and it has not been exaggerated, especially that around Colorado Springs and Manitou. It is not beautiful with the gently rounded slopes, curving streams, overhanging trees, fields of swaying blue-grass and peaceful flocks that mark a Kentucky landscape. It has not such soft, ingratiating loveliness, it is not merely pleasing to the eye. The spirit of beauty was not in a light or playful mood. It is wonderful, sudden, fierce. It is awe inspiring. It fascinates one's sense of the gigantic; one's inmost soul is moved to admiration.

It is not strange that Helen Hunt Jackson was inspired in North Cheyenne Canon, for Colorado's enormous rock domes, lofty peaks, deep cleft canyons, and rushing water falls are sublime. In striking contrast appears the level prairie country of Kansas. Though this has been an unfavorable year for Kansas crops, especially for corn, a long drive into the country reveals unexpected beauties in the Kansas landscape. Prosperous farms, where fat cattle chew meditatively, extend themselves comfortably for hundreds of acres, though making thereby the houses far apart. Restful indeed, was the broad expanse of level country, darkening softly beneath the slowly lengthening shadows of the coming evening, while the millions of diminutive sun-flowers blinked their black eyes sleepily and the sweetest of odors came surging up from the thick alfalfa fields.

Hutchinson, Kas. is quite a noted salt mining district, one salt plant alone sending out 600 barrels a day. Kansas people I found to be very pleasant and hospitable, while the little city of Wichita is beautiful and will no doubt be crowded to the fullest extent during the carnival in October. But one might go on praising other States at quite a length and still be able to say "Kentucky is just as good. Kentucky suits me." Such at least is the opinion of Hustonsville, Sept. 20.

HUBBLE.

George Wood sold some heifers to Gentry Bros. for $30.

H. M. Spoonamore got his face considerably bruised up and broke his nose by a horse drawing his foot up in his face while stamping flies. Mr. Spoonamore was down under the horse when the accident happened. M. B. Eubanks has gone to Wayne county to buy some young cattle. Mrs. George Drye, of Mt. Vernon, is visiting friends in this community. C. P. Underwood's sale was largely attended on the 27th and everything sold well. A good dinner for all was well served and everybody was glad they were alive and there. Corn brought $1.60 per barrel. Mr. Underwood will move to Danville and remain there till he schools his children. But here is hoping from all that he may buy another farm some where in this community, as he and his good wife will be so much missed in the community. Mr. Jack Rankin has moved to the Gentry farm, which he recently bought of R. L. Hubble.

MILLIONS GIVEN AWAY.

It is a truly gratifying thing to the public to know of one citizen in the land who is not afraid to be generous to the needy and suffering. The proprietors of Dr. King's New Life Pills, ever on hand in trial bottles of this great medicine, have the satisfaction of knowing it has absolutely cured thousands of hopeless cases. Asthma, Bronchitis, Hoarseness and all diseases of the Throat, Chest and Lungs are surely cured by it. It is sold in Penny, Dime and Sixty Cent bottles. Regular bottles, 50c, 1.00 and $1.00. Every bottle guaranteed or price refunded.

Referring to Yockey's speech at London an exchange wants to know if he will move the capital there, if elected. No, he will not move it there, but to Danville like he did the internal revenue office.

WOOD DUNLAP wants to go to Congress from the Ashland district. He could easily fill the seat once occupied by Henry Clay, physically, but there would be a mental vacuum.

WORKING NIGHT AND DAY.

The busiest and mightiest little pill that ever was made is Dr. King's New Life Pills. Every pill is a sugar-coated globe of health, that changes weakness into strength, listlessness into energy, brain-ache into mental power. They are wonderful in building up the health. Only 25c per box. Sold by Penny, Drugist.

CHURCH MATTERS.

The protracted meeting at the McKinney Baptist church, conducted by Rev. T. H. Coleman, closed with five additions.

Revs. Ira Partin and T. M. Smith closed a meeting at Waynesburg which resulted in 21 additions to the Baptist church and a great awakening of the members.

A large crowd attended the dedication of a Christian church at Wall's School-house in Casey Sunday. Rev. Gilliam preached the dedicatory sermon, which was a fine one and a splendid dinner, in great abundance, was served on the grounds.

All of the members and friends of the church are requested to be present Sunday morning when it will be decided whether or not a pastor will be called.

Mrs. William Goggin, who had many relatives in this county, died at Somerset last week at a ripe old age.

The mule that walked into the First National Bank at Stanford, Friday, was very likely looking for his check-rein.—Cynthiana Democrat.

A saloon was opened at Somerset Saturday morning, but the "dry" people have filed a contest stating that the election on the whisky question was illegal.

A rousing democratic club with A. W. Stewart, president; W. H. Jones, vice president, and T. J. Hays, secretary, was organized at Wildie the other night.

SOCIETY OF ARMY OF CUMBERLAND AT CHICKAMAUGA.

The Army of the Cumberland will meet at Chattanooga, Oct. 9-11, 1900. At the same time a meeting of the National Park Commission and various State commissions will be held, and an inspection of this marvelous memorial to the heroism of the Blue and the Gray will be made. Locations of battlefields and monuments discussed, and points of interest visited. Mass meetings and meetings of the various societies attending will be held. Every soldier of 1863 or of 1898 should go to this memorable meeting at Chickamauga.

HALF RATES.

Round trip tickets Queen & Crescent route, from Cincinnati and north Oct. 8 and 9th, good to return Oct. 13th. One fare round trip. Write to W. C. RINKER, S. S., G. P. A., Cincinnati. He will give you full particulars and send you free printed matter.

The first number of Walton's Lexington Morning Democrat has reached Times. It is an exceedingly fine and well tempered paper, and its utterances will give no offense to any democrat. If any democrat expects to find any defense of racialists in politicians or parties in the Democrat he will find himself altogether mistaken. While a lengthy, incisive and bold writer, Walton is as far from being an apologist for racialists as any man in the State, and the politician, who claiming to be a democrat, expects to get under the protection of Walton's guns when he goes wrong, will find himself woefully mistaken. The Democrat has a fine field for its work and its editor is admirably suited for the needs of the hour and for the honor of Kentucky.—Dr. Woods in Bowling Green Times.

One fare round-trip to Lexington via Southern Railway account Lexington trots, greatest harness racing in the South. Tickets on sale Oct. 1 to 13, inclusive; good to return until Oct. 15. Southern Railway has three daily trains between Louisville and Lexington.

NEWS NOTES.

The formation of a worsted trust is in progress.

The Southern school of Osteopathy at Franklin has 140 students registered. Near Beattyville, Walter Evans cut his wife's throat with a razor and then committed suicide with the same weapon.

Miss Hall, daughter of Will Hall, a wealthy cattle dealer of Floyd county, was burned to death as the result of a coal oil explosion.

While in a jealous rage, J. P. Bosung, a Louisville druggist, killed Mamie Coe, with whom he had been living, and then committed suicide.

The steel trust has begun to work a scheme to influence the election, closing down mills on the pretext that customers are not buying because they want to wait and see who is elected.

Mrs. Amanda Wilson and son, Collie Wilson, have sold the Bardstown Observer to Messrs. Ben Johnson and L. B. Samuels, of the Record, that city, and its publication will be discontinued.

The Philadelphia & Reading Coal & Iron Company offered its miners an increase of 10 per cent. in wages. The other companies will give similar notices, but no agreement has been reached.

At Shepherdsburg, five men took Scott Shawler from his home, gagged and bound him, gave him to severe beatings and warned to leave town under penalty of death. Shawler has sworn out warrants for the men.

Seven thousand people attended the Confederate reunion at Williamstown. Speeches were made by Congressman Berry, Bennett H. Young and others. Miss Myrtle Shawhan, of Elliston Station, died on the grounds. She had consumption and was very weak, and it is thought the excitement and heat produced her death.

Warner N. Newbold, superintendent of the South and North and Birmingham divisions of the Louisville & Nashville railroad, committed suicide at Birmingham by shooting himself. Despondency over the death of his wife is thought to be the cause of his death. The remains have been shipped to Louisville for interment.

Galveston is confronted by a serious problem. The city is virtually bankrupt and money-lenders refuse to cash city scrip except at a heavy discount. A special session of the Legislature has been suggested to appropriate $100,000. Gov. Sayers reports a total of $672,476-29 contributed for the storm sufferers. This total is money sent to Gov. Sayers and not distributed through other channels.

Jim Howard was sentenced Saturday to be hanged Dec. 7 for the murder of Gov. Goebel, Judge Cantrill overruling the motion for a new trial. The sentence was suspended for 90 days, pending an appeal to the court of appeals. In response to the affidavit of B. Leander Guffy, that Howard was not in the executive building at the time of the assassination, the Commonwealth filed a counter-affidavit of John W. Ray, of Carlisle county, that Guffy said on the day of the shooting that Goebel would never be governor and that he would be killed before the joint assembly met. The affidavit of Ray will be brought before the January grand jury.

Hon. James D. Black, who was defeated for the gubernatorial nomination, has been constantly on the stump since the campaign opened, and is doing valiant service for the whole ticket. He has asked to be assigned to republican strongholds and will be found in the thickest of the fight until victory is achieved in November. Kentucky has no truer democrat than this mountain war horse.—Hopkinsville Kentuckian.

Postmasters are being assessed $11 each by the republicans in an almost open manner. As there are 80,000 postmasters, the fund would aggregate nearly $1,000,000. A Nebraska postmaster has exposed the scheme and several of the letters are made public.

LANCASTER.

Rev. Ira Partin has been called unannounced to preach for Harmony church, this county, where he preached for two years.

Rev. J. F. Williams, of Harrodsburg, is holding revival meetings at the Fork church, there having been 12 additions.

Hon. R. H. Tomlinson will go to North Dakota this week to look after his farming interests. W. B. Mason has returned from Hillsboro, O.

A show of about 50 lanterns, artistically designed in figures of natural objects, was held by the children of the kindergarten department of the graded school at Dr. J. B. Kinnaid's residence on Friday evening, a prize of $1 being given for the prettiest design by Miss Murphy, teacher of the class.

Miss Nora, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Ed Minor, won the prize, her lantern showing leaves in perfect form and different shades of color.

A good number of the Gilbert club met on Saturday night and democratic organization was begun in earnest.

Capt. Mike Salter was elected assistant vice president. Stirling remarks were made by W. I. Williams, R. H. Tomlinson, J. I. Hamilton, J. E. and T. B. Robinson, R. L. Davidson and others.

The club will meet every Tuesday and Saturday nights. Messrs. David Ross, Mike Salter, T. B. Robinson and J. I. Hamilton were appointed as an advisory committee. Clubs will be organized at Paint Lick and Bryansville next Saturday afternoon, when the speakers named above and Mr. John T. Have will furnish the oratory. Chairman J. E. Robinson has arranged to have Hon. N. B. Hays, one of the State electors, in this county on Oct. 18 and 19. Other speakers will be here at different times, and everything will be done to save the country from republican misrule.

Judge W. E. Varnon made three speeches in this county last week in the interest of the republican ticket. He spoke here on Friday night in the colored people's hall in the Duncan annex. It was looked upon as a dark lantern, secret session affair by the democrats, who felt that they would not be welcomed, as it was not at court-house, and they did not attend. A reputable gentleman says that he stood near the building and saw white republicans enter, with hats pulled down, never asking him in. He said that the speech was full of bold assertions, intended to lead the colored man astray. He says that the speaker said that he was cared for by an old colored woman; that he always sympathized with that race, and that the democrats treated them so badly that he left that party; that if the democratic ticket is elected the colored man will be disfranchised and never be permitted to vote again. Such unreasonable statements made up most of the speech. Mr. G. A. Swinebroad regrets to hear such stuff coming from a man whom he supported for county judge of Lincoln and whom the democratic party honored with office for a long time.

IT HAPPENED IN A DRUG STORE. "One day last winter a lady came to my drug store and asked for a brand of cough medicine that I did not have in stock," says Mr. C. R. Grandin, the popular druggist of Ontario, N. Y. "She was disappointed and wanted to know what cough preparation I could recommend. I said to her that I could freely recommend Chamberlain's Cough Remedy and that she could take a bottle of the remedy and after giving it a fair trial if she did not find it worth the money to bring back the bottle and I would refund the price paid.

In the course of a day or two the lady came back in company with a friend in need of a cough medicine and advised her to buy a bottle of Chamberlain's Cough Remedy. I consider that a very good recommendation for the Remedy. The remedy owes its great popularity and extensive sale in a large measure to the personal recommendations of people who have been cured by its use. It is for sale by Craig & Hocker, Druggists.

It is said that Secretary of State Hay will return to his duties, having made it a condition that President McKinley should give him an absolutely free hand in foreign affairs. He has been absent two months because, it is alleged, his conduct of the Chinese question was not approved. Berlin looks for a renewal of energy and a correction of the "diplomatic mistake."

If the Hon. Jo John Yerkes will not "consider it an insult," The Times would like to ask him, in the very improbable event of his election, he will order the seat of government removed from Frankfort to either London or Manchester?—Louisville Times.

THE truthfulness of the old adage, that the fowl that befores its own nest is the fittest of all the feathered tribe, or words to that effect, is daily exemplified in the course of those newspapers that have justly earned for themselves the title of organs of assassination. Not satisfied with being the main cause of the lamented Goebel's murder, they have persistently kept up their nefarious work by exerting every effort to shield his assassins from punishment. In order to do this, they do not hesitate to stoop to the lowest depths of infamy. Judge Cantrill, an upright, honest judge, the equal of any man in the Commonwealth in all that makes true manhood, is branded as a second Jeffries. The sheriffs are virtually accused of selecting as jurors partisans who promise in advance to convict, regardless of law or testimony, and this, in spite of the fact, that the two juries so far chosen have been selected from all political parties and their verdicts of guilt have been unanimous. James Howard, whose chief occupation in life has been assassination, is mourned for as a martyr to the cause of civil liberty. Every man, who testified against him, is charged with having sold out to Campbell, and all who testified for him, although the majority of them by their own testimony were shown to be villains of the deep end dye, are held up to the world as saints. These papers are constantly quoted by that element of the North, which makes the vilification of the South its main business, to prove that Kentucky is in a state of barbarism. The worst feature of the whole affair is that some of these papers slander the democratic party by claiming to be of that persuasion. The distinguished Gov. Mount always quotes them freely as democratic papers when undertaking to justify his conduct in shielding fugitive Taylor. The main burden of their song is that Goebel retarded the prosperity of the State, but they have done and are doing the State more injury than all other causes combined.

IN this republican prosperity, of which we hear so much, would only strike the government so that the war revenue law could be abolished, it would be a great relief to the tolling masses. It is not only tiresome and annoying, but very expensive to be compelled to purchase revenue stamps for every conceivable transformation of life, from drawing a check, giving a gift, making a contract, selling a farm, buying a fine coat or patent medicine, inheriting a fortune and so on, to the end of the lengthy schedule.

TALLOW DICK KNOTT, of the Louisville assassination press, says there is nothing in the proof against Howard to show that he was in the office or at the fire that killed Mr. Goebel. The jury, however, who heard the evidence and was the judge of the admissibility of the witnesses, seems to have taken issue with the eminent editor, who is in the pay of the republicans to lie, and of whom it must be said he is conscientiously trying to do his money.

AS Mark Hanna has developed into a orator, it will doubtless fall his lot to deliver the oration over the dead body of the republican party after the 15th of November. This effort though, the estimation of school boys, will fully surpass that of Mark Antony, illustrious predecessor, over the pains of his friend, Caesar, whose death was also due to dreams of empire.

It has always been the boast of the republican party that the expenses of a federal government were collected exclusively from the luxuries of life. But since it decided to take a part in the game of imperialism, not the luxuries, but the necessities, in fact everything else pertaining to life is subjected to a heavy drain for a purpose.

THE Woman's Christian Temperance Union, in session at Indianapolis, resolved that McKinley should be consigned to the polls. If the women advancing in political knowledge at this rate, they may yet be given the right of suffrage.

THE republican orators have to take back seat when there is a flop over poor around to introduce Kid Glove in Yerkes. This is one of the real horse turnouts get.

THE non rooters will not have an opportunity to heave a sigh of relief before the close of the baseball, and the ending of the football seasons.

Candidate Williams has any making appointments we have over them. It is making a still hunt hunting a "still?"

THE conviction Jim Howard began to read law. It is a great that he didn't begin to head law ago.

WITH all the facts and circumstances known of the devilish conspiracy at Frankfort carried to its awful accomplishment, it is almost beyond comprehension how republican and other spell-binders can have the audacity to appear before the people and advocate the party whose leaders have resorted to such means for the accomplishment of their ends, or how so nice a man as Collector Yerkes is said to be, can have the heart to carry the banner of blood that has been placed in his hands, or that men, calling themselves good citizens, can approve and endorse the criminals' acts committed during the reign of terror at Frankfort, a bare mention of which is sufficient to make the blood run cold. To such, retribution will surely come. Kentucky will never, by a majority vote, approve of government by assassination and the party and the men that endorse it are destined to political damnation, even if they are fortunate to escape penal punishment. A vote for Beckham will help to a consummation devoutly to be wished. Let all men who love order and despise lawlessness see that he and every man that be can influence stamps the ballot where it will tell for peace, honor and good government.

ROOSEVELT is now doubtless of Job's opinion, that being the author of a book is the greatest calamity with which man can be afflicted. He has written several and some man has actually read one of them and discovered that he aimed his views at great length on what he then considered the crime, but now the virtue, of gobbling up the earth and the fullness thereof, without the consent or desire of the gobbled. His views in the book, written when he was only influenced by the motive to state his honest convictions, are dramatically opposed to the views he is now daily expressing, while under the influence of a consuming desire to be vice president of the United States. Any fair minded man who has the patience to read the book and his speeches will admit that the reasoning of Roosevelt, the author is a complete refutation of the reasoning of Roosevelt, the office seeker.

MR. YERKES says that Gov. Beckham having said he would never pardon any one convicted of the assassination of William Goebel, is unworthy of the votes of Kentuckians, since no man should so declare without hearing the facts. Taylor's proxy hasn't exactly said so himself, but Judge Nicholas Vaughan, of Louisville, and other of his spokesmen have, that elected, Mr. Yerkes will pardon all the suspected and convicted assassins from Taylor down. Kentuckians will decide, in no uncertain way, on the first Tuesday in November, which is the most worthy of their votes, and we opine it will not be in favor of the gentleman from Boyle.

THE New York Times says the cost to the government of the campaign document cabled over by the Philippine commission under the disguise of a report was $4,239 and that this is a wise expenditure, as the people want to know what is going on there. All of the people, except those running for office on the republican ticket, would have been willing to wait on the mails for information and Hanna ought by all means to have paid this bill.

HANNA has been in Wall Street using all of his persuasive power to get the mine owners to end the strike by acceding to the terms of the strikers. His object in helping labor at this time needs no explanation, though he furnished one himself which leaked out against his desire. He says that unless the strike is ended, McKinley will be beaten. That's what's the matter with Hanna.

STEPHEN B. ELKINS, a republican, will be a candidate for re-election to the United States Senate from West Virginia next year, and will be opposed by his father-in-law, Henry G. Davis, a democrat. A man who has the gall to oppose his father-in-law both in politics and for office would be liable to take issue with his mother-in-law on a minor point.

IT is very unfortunate for the democratic party that Roosevelt's speaking was interrupted in Colorado. We fear that this will give the republicans the desired excuse to cancel his other engagements. If he and Hanna can be kept on the stump until the election, the victory is ours.

THE late John B. Houston, of Lexington, a celebrated criminal lawyer, made it a rule to excuse Presbyterians from juries, on account of their hanging propensities. The rule will have to be extended now, so as to include Christians, Baptists and Methodists.

AT Fargo, N. D., where Mr. Bryan spoke to a great crowd, he said: "You will search history in vain for a more dishonorable part than the republican party has taken in turning a war of humanity into a war for conquest."

THE president is thinking of withdrawing the troops from Pekin and sending them into the Philippines, and Hanna is thinking of withdrawing the president from Canton and sending him on to the stump.

EVEN if Howard's guilt hadn't been proven beyond the peradventure of a doubt, as it was, the verdict would still be a righteous one, for a worthier subject for hanging on general principles never lived.

ALTHOUGH every shade of politics and several varieties of religion were represented in the Howard jury, the only difference of opinion that arose was as to the degree of punishment.

So far this has been a campaign of unanswered questions.

IN a charming article on beautiful women, Max O'Rell names the countries that excel in the different lines of attractiveness, and says that for all-around beauties the Irish women take the cake. Strange to say, he makes no mention whatever of the Kentucky variety. If we didn't know to the contrary, we would infer from this that he had never visited the State. As he has, though, it is evident that he is afflicted with a bad case of astigmatism.

WHEN you vote stamp under the rooster, and you won't have to stamp your hens hereafter in order to sell the eggs.

The fellow who is going to vote for Bryan and Yerkes is the same fellow who prays "Good Lord, good devil."

A dispatch from Barboursville says that every man who voted for Brown last year will support the straight democratic ticket this time.

Republican leaders in Indiana are rearranging Roosevelt's itinerary in that State in order to send him on Bryan's trail in the mining regions.

During the six years Sam J. Pagb, of the 6th district, has been in Congress, he has voted to unseat 15 democrats elected by majorities aggregating 25,000.

Bets of $100 to $75 that Bryan will carry Kentucky appeared on the boards of the Denison House, Indianapolis, republican headquarters. They were not taken.

The Philadelphia Times, which was a strong supporter of McKinley four years ago, has come out for Bryan, saying in the course of a scathing editorial that the exile present four years ago have returned sevenfold.

Yerkes was introduced at Harrodsburg yesterday by Phil B. Thompson, Sr. He was met by a procession of about 600, a majority of them being Negroes, headed by a Negro band that paraded up Main street playing "Marching through Georgia."

HON. FRANK BURKE—The democratic club and campaign committee thought it best for Hon. Frank Burke, the eloquent Indianan, to speak at night here, so his appointment was changed to 7 P. M. Go and hear him.

WAS IT SUICIDE?—Hiram M. Powell, son of Mr. C. D. Powell, of Lancaster, was shot and killed by a pistol in his own hands, close to his store at Gilberts Creek late yesterday afternoon. The general impression is that it was suicide, but one report says he was cleaning his pistol when it was discharged. The ball entered just below the left nipple and he died almost instantly. He was about 28 and leaves besides a wife, who is very ill, three small children. Mr. Powell had been drinking to some extent and when under influence of whisky was very low spirited. He was a good business man, a kind husband and indulgent father, who had but one fault, the love of strong drink. 'Squire Raines is at the scene and will hold an inquest this morning.

WE did H. J. McRoberts, the clothier and furnisher, an unintentional injustice last issue when we got the figure 5 for a 3 in his advertisement. He sells the splendid ladies Ultra shoes at $3.50, not $5.50, but they would be cheap at the latter price.

TO THE LADIES.—Miss Laura Jarboe, who is with me again, has just spent two weeks in a millinery work-room in Cincinnati and is thoroughly conversant with the Fall and Winter styles. Call in a few days and see some of her work. Miss Lizzie Beazley.

THE stockholders of the Somerset Banking Co. in this, Rockcastle and Boyle counties are preparing to have an investigation made as to the true condition of that institution. Some $20,000 or more of the stock is owned by them and they are desirous of knowing where their money has gone.

BIG TIME.—The democrats are preparing for a big time Thursday evening, when Hon. Frank B. Burke, of Indiana, speaks here. A procession of several hundred gentlemen on horseback will form on Somerset Street about 5 o'clock and go down Main Street, thence back up Main to Danville Avenue and returning, stop in front of the court house. The courthouse yard will be made as light as day by electric lights and lanterns and many other things will be done to honor the distinguished gentleman who will speak that evening.

THE war department has made public a list of officers and men of Company F, 29th Regiment of Infantry, whose captain and 51 members were captured or killed by the insurgents of Marauding, P. I. Among the number are the following who enlisted at Hustonville and much uneasiness is felt about them: Sergt. Harry McKinley, Corporal Charles P. Bratton, Cook William C. Dally, Archie R. Bratton, Thomas B. Ellis, Kiler J. Fallowell, Edward H. Kidd, Jeff T. Sharp, Everett T. Smiley. The remainder of the company was enlisted at Ft. Pherson, Ga., and at various other points in Georgia, North Carolina, Florida, Louisiana, Alabama and Tennessee.

FEELING GOOD.—Hon. James D. Black, of Barbourville, was on Sunday's train bound for Munfordville, where he spoke yesterday. In answer to our query, what do you think of the political outlook? he said: "We will win in State and nation, but to do it every democrat must do his duty. I made seven speeches last week and while I find the people enthused, they can not be too much so and we must lose no time in trying to arouse them to the great importance of electing democrats this time." Mr. Black partially promised to make a speech in Stanford and those who heard his splendid effort here last year sincerely hope he will be able to do so. You should hear him at Mt. Vernon Saturday afternoon, next, 6th.

AT the democratic club meeting at the court house Friday night, Vice-President S. J. Embry, Sr., acted as chairman in the absence of President McAllister and made a good one. The membership was swelled to 171, talks by several of the members were enjoyed and the meeting was as profitable as it was pleasant. On account of a misunderstanding no speaker from a distance was present, but at the meetings hereafter one or more good ones may be expected. The club expressed itself as being delighted with the prospect of having Hon. Frank Burke speak here Thursday night and reception, preparation and advertising committees were appointed to make ready for his coming. Col. W. G. Welch, Judge J. P. Baller, Hon. R. C. Warren and Messrs. J. H. McAllister, S. J. Embry, Sr., and R. L. Hubble compose the first named committee. Messrs. J. M. Alverson, J. T. Jones, Rowan Saufley, C. B. Owens, George W. DeBor, J. P. Jones and T. D. Newland the preparation and T. M. Goodnight, W. S. Burch, Harvey Helm, G. B. Cooper and E. C. Walton, the advertising. All of the committeemen pledged earnest work and nothing will be left undone to make the visit of the distinguished Indianan one to be remembered. Messrs. W. T. Saunders and R. C. Engleman, Sr., were appointed doorkeeper and assistant doorkeeper, respectively, of the club, with instructions to admit none but members. After some routine business the meeting adjourned until Friday night next, when it is hoped that every member will be on hand.

WAYNESBURG organized a democratic club of 50 members Saturday night with M. G. Reynolds, president; Stephen H. Gooch, vice president; L. C. Gooch, secretary, and Sam P. Gooch, treasurer. The club will meet on Friday nights.

TYPHOID FEVER.—Mr. E. B. The others who have been ill of fever are on the road to recovery.

MCKINNEY has the banner democratic club of the county so far. She organized Saturday afternoon with 174 members—all voters and workers for the cause. W. A. Coffey was elected president; C. C. Smith, vice president; C. L. Crow, secretary, and Reuben Williams, treasurer. Hons. Harvey Helm and W. S. Burch went out and after assisting in the organization made good speeches. The club will meet on Monday nights.

STOVER.—Mrs. E. B. Stover, who was Miss Mattie Dunlap Hopper, died at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. George D. Hopper, at 10 A. M. Saturday, of a complication of diseases. She was taken ill in April but grew stronger and gave promise of recovery, but in June she had another spell from which she never entirely recovered. A month or so ago she grew worse and her doctors pronounced her case malarial fever. Complications set up and for the past two weeks she had lingered between life and death. Her death is a peculiarly sad one, being a bride of but a year. Young, light hearted and happy, she made those with whom she came in contact feel better by her presence and inspired them for good. Early in life she joined the Presbyterian church and had since been a devout member. On Aug. 22, of last year, she was married to Mr. Edwin B. Stover, now principal in a Knoxville high school, and they lived as happily as a couple ever did, but death cut short the honeymoon and now the husband is left crushed by his loss. He arrived Tuesday night and scarcely left her bedside till the end came. Mrs. Stover was the idol of her parents and they like the broken-hearted husband, have the sympathy of all in their dark hour. After funeral services at Mr. Hopper's Sunday afternoon by Eld. Joseph Balou and Rev. S. M. Rankin, the longest procession in years followed the remains to Buffalo cemetery, where they were interred.

Jacob C. Bronston, aged 63 years, a well known farmer of Madison, died after a years' illness.

He will not be here Thursday evening, but his personal friend, Hon. Frank Burke, of Indiana, will, and he will speak promptly at 7 o'clock.

According to Justice S. G. Mills, of Washington, there are times when cursing is not criminal. Thornton Kedrick was arrested for swearing at a street car conductor who refused him a transfer. The court dismissed him, saying there had been great provocation. "I believe," added his honor, "that though profanity may be always a moral offense it is sometimes excusable in the eyes of the law."

F. K. Smith, a colored preacher in Houston, Tex., known there as "Elijah the prophet," has been for several months predicting a long season of rain and pleading with his people to build covered boats to save themselves from the flood that is coming. The fact that rain has fallen there every day for 44 days is pointed to as a fulfillment of his prophecy, and he has also shown his faith by his works, having built an ark and placed it in his church.

A waiter in a cafe on Broad street, Elizabeth, N. J., a few days ago entered a huge ice box for some purpose, and accidentally pulled the door to. He could not open it from the inside, and exhausted himself in kicking at it. Then he fell on the floor and was not found for an hour. Three of his toes were so badly frozen that they will have to be amputated.

A Texas farmer who keeps a trained rattlesnake at his front gate to frighten the tramps away has, according to the veracious Denver Post, made the discovery that the average hobo just gives his eyes a rub, takes another look, imagines it is a touch of the old thing and walks right over it.

A prominent citizen of Chicago who is languishing behind iron bars refuses to take food because he has had a tip from an angel that fasting will get him out of jail. It surely will, if he keeps it at it long enough.

BRAVE MEN FALL

Victims to stomach, liver and kidney troubles as well as women, and ill feel the results in loss of appetite, poisons in the blood, backache, nervousness, headache and tired, listless, run down feeling. But there's no need to feel like that. Listen to A. W. Gardner, Ixonia, Ind. He says: "Electric Bitters are just the thing for a man when he is all run down, and don't care whether he lives or dies. It did more to give me new strength and good appetite than anything I could take. I can now eat anything and have a new lease on life." J. C. Taylor, of Penny's Drug Store. Every bottle guaranteed.

TAYLOR declined to talk about the Howard verdict for the reasons, no doubt, that it struck him dumb.

DEAFNESS CANNOT BE CURED

By local applications as they cannot reach the diseased portion of the ear. There is only one way of cure deafness, and that is by constitutional treatment of the mucous lining of the Eustachian Tube. When this tube is inflamed, it causes a humming sound or imperfect hearing, and if when it is entirely closed, Deafness is the result, and unless the inflammation can be taken out and this tube restored to its normal condition, hearing will be destroyed forever. Nine cases out of ten are caused by Catarrh, which is nothing but an inflamed condition of the mucous surface.

We will give One Hundred Dollars for any case of Deafness caused by Catarrh that can not be cured by Hall's Catarrh Cure. Send for circulars free.
